Annex 1. Unit prices for Technical Guidance Fees for Lecturers (applies to both local lecturers and international lecturers)

Item	Currency paid	Japan	USD	EUR	Cambodia	Indonesia	Laos	Malaysia	Myanmar	Philippines	Singapore	Thailand	Vietnam
	Unit	JPY			KHR	IDR	LAK	MYR	MMK	PHP	SGD	THB	VND
Technical Guidance Fee for Lecturers(when teaching technology etc.)	/day/person	17,500	117.44	108.69	479,386.25	1,838,025.00	2,446,867.50	559.28	246,743.00	6,598.28	157.86	4,209.66	2,878,662.50
Technical Guidance Fee for Lecturers(when teaching Japanese)	/day/person	6,600	44.29	40.99	180,797.10	693,198.00	922,818.60	210.93	93,057.36	2,488.49	59.53	1,587.64	1,085,667.00

Note 1: The unit price of the technical guidance fee for lecturers varies depending on the content (technology etc. or Japanese) to be taught.

Note 2: Calculate by multiplying the actual number of days instruction was provided, for each course lecturer, according to the course curriculum schedule (results) by the unit price above.

Note 3: For an on-demand online course, the number of days instruction is considered to be based on the date distribution of the teaching materials prepared for the on-demand online course began.

Annex 2. Maximum base amount of Remuneration for Program Advisor

Item	Currency paid	Japan	USD	EUR	Cambodia	Indonesia	Laos	Malaysia	Myanmar	Philippines	Singapore	Thailand	Vietnam

Note 1: The Technical Guidance Fee for Lecturers is based on the position with the affiliated university or other institution if the course lecturer is a faculty member of such an institution. A course lecturer who is a company employee or similar party is considered to guide the course as a special lecturer and is considered to be at the 3rd Grade in principle. However, if the lecturer has an authorized position with the university holding the course, then the fee may be based on that position.

Note 2: For purposes of manuscript fees, documents are converted to pages at a rate of 400 characters/page for Japanese and 200 words/page for other languages. However, PowerPoint files are converted to pages at a uniform rate of three slides/page. Round off to the nearest full page.

Note 3: For purposes of revision fees, count the number of characters in the passage actually corrected or revised. Convert this count to pages at a rate of 400 characters/page for Japanese and 200 words/page for other languages. However, revised or corrected PowerPoint slides are converted to pages at a uniform rate of three slides/page. Round off to the nearest full page.

Note 4: If teaching materials prepared for an on-demand online course include narration (including voice explanations during video), then an additional amount based on the unit price for revision fees shall be paid in accordance with the number of pages of the manuscript for the narration.

Annex 6. Base unit prices for expenses incurred during interns' stays in Japan for the internships (lodging expenses, meal expenses, miscellaneous expenses)

Item	Currency paid
	Unit	Japan JPY
Lodging expenses (from check-in on date of arrival in Japan through check-out on date of departure/maximum amount)	/night/person	10,267
Meal expense	Total for three meals (from the date of arrival in Japan through the day before the date of departure)	/day/person 2,750
Breakdown	Lunch (from the date of arrival in Japan through the day before the date of departure)	/meal/person 880
	Dinner (from the date of arrival in Japan through the day before the date of departure)	/meal/person 1,210
	Breakfast (from the day after the date of arrival in Japan through the date of departure)	/meal/person 660
Miscellaneous expenses	/day/person	1,040

Note 1: The amount shown above is the maximum unit price for interns' lodging charges. The amount based on the actual unit price, within this range, is eligible as expenses, based on the detailed invoices and receipts for lodging provided for interns.

Annex 7. Base unit prices for purchase and fabrication of devices and equipment

Item	Currency paid

Note 1: When purchasing or fabricating (1) devices and equipment, (2) utensils and supplies, (3) tools, or (4) software, the unit purchase price may be recorded as eligible expenses of the program up to the amount shown in the table above.

Note 2: Include in the purchase price the amount paid for the entire set including bundled accessories, parts, software, etc. (e.g., items that are not functional on their own). However, there is no need to include consumables.

Note 3: Treat CAD software, analytical software, and other software that could function on its own on a general-purpose computer separately as individual units.

Note 4: Purchase prices do not include amounts of consumption tax, VAT, or other taxes assessed on individual items when purchasing or fabricating the devices and equipment.

Note 5: If separate shipping charges or tariffs, customs clearance fees, or other one-time costs are incurred on procurement from a country other than the one where the course is held, they do not need to be included in the purchase unit price.
