2021 AOTS Webinar [KROP24] Workplace Environment Improvement and Occupational Safety and Health for Better Mental Health

Organized by The Association for Overseas Technical Cooperation and Sustainable Partnerships (AOTS) Collaborated by AOTS Alumni Societies

BACKGROUND

The Association for Overseas Technical Cooperation and Sustainable Partnerships (AOTS) is an organization for human resources development mainly in overseas countries to promote technical cooperation through training, experts dispatch and other programs. Through those programs, we aim at contributing to the mutual economic growth of developing countries and Japan as well as enhancing friendly relations among those countries.

AOTS webinar titled "Workplace Environment Improvement and Occupational Safety and Health for Better Mental Health (KROP 24) is an online seminar targeting managers of companies and organizations of developing countries. This program is suitable for those who wish to create a workplace environment that takes mental health into consideration and thereby improve productivity.

OUTLINE

Modern society sees more cases of workplace stress and mental disorders, which are said to have affected work productivity. Reduction of stress and creation of a work friendly environment need to be addressed as an urgent management issue. This program considers the background and studies how to use practical methods of workplace improvement in the primary prevention of stress at the whole of the workplace.

OBJECTIVES

The participants will be able to achieve the following objectives.

- 1) To identify the problems of their practices of labor and hygiene management and points for improvement therefor through reflecting on the workplace environment of their companies.
- 2) To understand the relationship between mental health management and improvement of job performance ability.
- 3) To understand the necessity of workplace improvement of their companies and creation of a workplace that ensures employees to work in good health in mind and body.
