

Workshop on New Kaizen Using IoT for a “Smart Factory”

Organized by: The Association for Overseas Technical Cooperation and Sustainable Partnerships (AOTS)
In collaboration with: ABK & AOTS Alumni Association (Thailand)

The Association for Overseas Technical Cooperation and sustainable Partnerships (AOTS) is providing training opportunities for foreign engineers and managers of the developing countries to promote technical cooperation by dispatching Japanese experts overseas. This training will be conducted for managers, supervisors or engineers in the Thai manufacturing companies by AOTS subsidized by Japanese government.

Outline

This program aims at taking a hint of how to apply IoT technology effectively to our own work place in order to enhance the productivity and developing the ability for promoting Kaizen activities in practical manners. In this program, participants will learn the way of applying the knowledge by lectures, exercises and discussions under the guidance of a Japanese lecturer with plenty of experience and expertise.
